My dear Debra

Here I am in West St

as usual Aunt Mary is here, and I am of course in a great hurry so you must take these few lines. I am sorry to hear that your knee continues the same I hope it will be better soon I have taken tea here & spent the evening over, and been here about every day. I have read Private Life and admire it very much. We are all going to take tea at Mrs Burs this afternoon. My appetite & health are again restored to me, I desire to be thankful with the assistance of Andersens Pills, I Vouch a hurry.

give much love to all and believe me yours ever affectionately. Sylvia

I have had my hair cut
and Anne has also
